Insured Risks

Insured risks are facts or events defined in the insurance contract as possible causes of the occurrence of an insured event, especially an obligation on the part of the insured to compensate for damage to goods sustained by another person, arising in connection with forwarding activities in the course of transport procurement. This applies to damage, destruction, theft or loss of goods or financial loss.

Insured risk also means an obligation on the part of the insured as a carrier to compensate for damage to goods in transit sustained by another person, arising from transport contracts, occurring during transport for which the insured used a contracted carrier. The extent of the insured's obligation to compensate for damage is in the case of inland road transport regulated by the legislation of the Czech Republic, in the case of international road transport by provisions of The Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (The CMR Convention) as amended by the Protocol to the CMR. In the case of other than road transport the relevant provisions of international conventions or the legislation of the Czech Republic will be applied.

Terms and conditions, and the scope of the insurance are defined by the insurance contract and General Insurance Terms and Conditions for Road Carrier's and Forwarder's Third Party Liability Insurance VPPDZ-P-01/2023.
